

Master of Public Administration

At Los Angeles School Police Department • Headquarters

Start: August 23, 2012

Finish: August 2, 2014

Thursday Evenings 6:00 – 9:45 p.m.

California State University, Northridge is proud to offer a Master of Public Administration degree program at the Los Angeles School Police Department • Headquarters

The MPA is a professional degree for practitioners in the public sector or those who plan to work solving public sector problems.

How It Works

- Enrollment is guaranteed in every class.
- Class schedule is already set for entire program, meeting one night a week.
- Classes are presented one at a time in an accelerated mode.
- You join with other students as a cohort, and your group progresses through the program as a cohesive and supportive unit.

Admission Requirements

- A Bachelor of Science (B.S.) or Arts (B.A.) degree from an accredited college or university.
- Grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or above in the last 60 semester units or 90 quarter units.
- At least two years of work experience in the public, private or non-profit sector.
